Professional Experience

Luis A. González Sánchez obtained his Law Degree from the Universidad Autónoma de Nuevo León and earned a Master's Degree in Business Law from Universidad Regiomontana in 2019. He also completed a specialization course in International Taxation at the Colegio de Contadores Públicos de México. Since 2019, he has been a member of the National Association of Business Lawyers (ANADE), where he served as Coordinator of the Competition Law Committee of the Nuevo León Chapter in 2022, and has been a member of the Mexican Bar Association (BMA) since 2023.

He served for seven years as part of the legal team of a major national business group comprising more than 30 companies with operations across Mexico in sectors such as machinery distribution, lubricants, tires, hydrocarbons, and personnel administration. During this time, he led the group's Corporate Secretariat functions, providing legal support in corporate, contractual, and regulatory matters, while managing relationships with international distributors. His responsibilities included corporate governance, structuring and execution of mergers and spin-offs, negotiation of commercial contracts, compliance advisory, and trust structuring.

In 2020, Luis served as a Legislative Advisor at Mexico's Federal Congress, contributing to the drafting and assessment of laws directly impacting the private sector. He also acted as Legal Counsel at the Government of Nuevo Le ó n for four years, where he advised on compliance and regulatory matters related to public administration and foreign investment projects.

Currently, Luis is Partner and Head of the Transactional & Corporate Practice at GRA Abogados, where he advises domestic and international companies on corporate structuring, mergers and acquisitions, international taxation, and foreign investment in Mexico. With more than 10 years of experience, he combines legal expertise with a deep understanding of Mexico's regulatory and institutional framework, providing comprehensive strategies for corporate clients.
