Professional Experience

With over 20 years of professional experience, Huang Xianwen has extensive practical expertise in handling complex, difficult, and novel types of financial and commercial dispute resolution. He is particularly adept in cases involving corporate governance and control disputes, valuation adjustment mechanism (VAM) disputes, and securities misrepresentation disputes. His clients span various sectors, including banking, insurance, trust, funds, real estate, asset management, and mineral resources.

Huang Xianwen is highly proficient in family wealth management and succession, providing comprehensive legal services to the actual controllers of numerous companies. These services include, but are not limited to: equity structure design, corporate charter review, prenuptial/marital property agreements, trusts, insurance, and succession planning design. The Fund, Trust & Wealth Management Business Center led by him has achieved outstanding results. In recognition of its excellent performance and strong industry reputation, it was awarded the 2024 ALB Annual Wealth Management Law Firm award.
